THE EATON AUDITORIUM
MAY TWENTY-SECOND
Nineteen Hundred and Forty-One

Life we were given and precious we hold
We must strengthen that gift a hundred-fold—
Strengthen that gift that we may live
Fearlessly, surely, with something to give.
Eagerly groping for her task
These are the questions that youth must ask:

Show us a need we can fulfill
Show us a sorrow we may distill
Show us a weakness we can mend
Show us the cause we must defend!

Show us the meaning and all of life
Show us the way and point us a path
Show us the things that are worthy and true
Show us the things that we must do!

Now we see a world in sorrow
Bravely marching toward the morrow
Our young strength might strength renew
Deep in the heart of that long review
Marching, marching, into Time
Find us places in that line!

Let us join the measured beat
Which will take our eager feet
On the path where trials meet
Point out the foes we must defeat!

Life fill us with living; assign us our parts
Try out our courage and test our young hearts
Leave us not empty and fraught with despair
Give us our burdens, our travail to bear!

Questioning, querying, begging, beseeching
Into the future with eager hands reaching
Tell us oh life, what we can do.
These are the things we bring to you,

These are the gifts we have to bring
To humbly place as offering—
Arms that are strong and long to endure
Feet that are steady and light and sure
Ears that are tuned to life's voiceless cries
Eyes that scan keenly life's worried skies
Thoughts that are searching the mysterious blue
Straining and yearning for life's greatest truths
Love which compels us, holds us, and binds
Us to our country, our people, our kind.

Questioning, querying, begging, beseeching
Into the future our eager hands reaching
These are the things we bring to you
Tell us, oh Life, what can we do!
